We may very well want to take advantage of your offer. At this point, may I ask you to write us again when your plans are more advanced. We shall want to know more precisely the location and circumstances of your private career.

Best regards.

Thank you for your letter of 6 January concerning the possibility of service with us following your retirement. I had delayed answering you in the hope that I might be able to give you some specific advice on this matter.

I have now received a report from the operating officials concerned who advise me that they would want to know a little more about your retirement plans, particularly the location of your retirement residence, before arriving at any definite conclusion. I appreciate the fact that your plans had not been completed in that detail at the time you wrote me but would be glad to hear from you again as soon as you have made your decision about location.

I appreciated your writing to me and am sorry it took a little longer than I had anticipated to get this very tentative response to you.
